The LJS has sent the following letter to Dr Ahmad Al Dubayan, Director of the London Central Mosque and the Islamic Cultural Centre in Regents Park, London.

Dear Dr Al Dubayan,

I write on behalf of the Rabbis, Council and members of the Liberal Jewish Synagogue to extend our deepest sympathy and to associate ourselves in compassion with those murdered and wounded in the two brutal and violent attacks at the Al Noor Mosque and the Linwood Islamic Centre in Christchurch New Zealand. Our hearts go out to the families and friends of those who have died and our thoughts are with those who have been injured, with all those who are involved in supporting them – doctors and nurses, police and others from the public services.

You are our neighbours, but not only that – we are brothers and sisters united by our faith in One God – Allah – Maker of heaven and earth, Source of all goodness. And we are created in the image of God to do good and not evil, to be just and compassionate, to do no harm and to cause no pain either through our actions or through our words.

At times such as these, we wish to extend our sympathy to all Muslims who feel the suffering of their brothers and sisters in faith and to affirm our common cause in condemning all violence and evil and attempting to bring a little goodness into our world.

As-Salam-u-Alaikum

Warmest good wishes from,

Alexandra
